CONFERENCE REPORTS.

PAINE INSTITUTE.

The Committee on Paine Institute beg leave to report that they have before them a full statement of the condition of things in this, the only school established by the M. E. Church, South, for the benefit of the Colored M. E. Church.

We find that the Institute has $40,000 of invested funds, of which $11,000 is in good real estate. It has an able faculty, consisting of three male professors, one female, and several assistants. It has been more prosperous during the last year than at any other period, and is doing most excellent work. It has sent forth eighteen preachers and thirty-eight teachers from eight States.

It needs and deserves the help of the whole church, and in asking from the Holston Conference only $500, it has made a request with which the committee think we ought to comply.

We advise, therefore, that this amount, $500, be apportioned by the Joint Board to the various districts, and the Presiding Elders shall endeavor to secure it in the way they think best.

We have collected during the year $156.66, and in addition to this a subscription has been made of about $280 to the Lane Institute, which, while it is the property of the Colored Methodist Church, is striving to do the same work with Paine.

"B"

TEMPERANCE.

The Committee on Temperance beg leave to submit the following report:

The cause of temperance, which has been growing more and more to be both a moral and political question, has come to demand recognition at the hands of religious bodies and political parties at the same time. As it is impossible to ignore the relations between morals and religion, so it is between churches and free government. A government of the people, for the people, and by the people, must ever reflect the sentiments of those who elect their own rulers and make their own laws. While, therefore, the civil constitution has wisely forbidden the establishment of any form of religion by law, it does not exclude the influence of all the moral and religious forces of society from being brought to bear on our law-making power.

The church, as the great conservator of peace and good order, has ever been upon the side of temperance and opposed to the saloon. We hold it the duty of all good members of the church to co-operate in any movement that commends itself to their individual judgment and conscience as promising to limit or suppress the sale and use of intoxicating drinks. We therefore hail the proposed reorganization of the temperance people in Tennessee under the call recently issued by Rev. Geo. R. Stuart, as a probable mode of influencing legislation in this State in favor of the cause of temperance. The proposition, as we understand it, is to favor the enactment of a law by which saloons cannot be licensed without the consent of a majority of the qualified voters of the town or district in which the saloon is to be located. Such a law is said to have been successful in several of the States which have adopted it. Notably within the State of Mississippi about nine-tenths of the counties have freed themselves from the curse of the liquor traffic by this law.

We therefore propose the adoption of the following resolution:

The Holston Conference of the M. E. Church, South, regarding the traffic in ardent spirits as an evil which requires the exercise of wise and judicious legislation for its limitation and suppression, do hereby promise our hearty co-operation as citizens with any well-considered plan for influencing our next legislature in the framing and enforcement of such laws as will enable our people in whole or in part to free themselves from the establishment of saloons in their own neighborhoods, with a view to the total and final prohibition of the license system throughout the State and the country.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals are pleased with the high grade of literature sent out by our Publishing House during the past year. The Christian Advocate is all the church could reasonably wish. Its tone has been positive and loyal, its spirit polite and liberal. We deem it worthy of all commendation. Our Sunday-school literature deserves unmeasured praise. The Missionary Review is a new and opportune departure, and will meet a long-felt want. The Quarterly Review is a literary production of high merit.

The Holston Methodist, recently purchased by O. W. Patton, has had an increased circulation the year just closing, but this enlargement of the subscription list is the result of extraordinary methods to meet emergencies. These methods and emergencies, though they have extended the circulation of the paper, have left the present proprietor and publisher in immediate need of the full sympathy and co-operation of this Conference.

But, brethren, your committee are unwilling to sign their names to a few complimentary phrases and call it their report; yet what more may we do? We find ourselves largely at a loss for specific statements and explicit facts.

If we understand the duty imposed on us, it is to bring forward the report of Holston Conference on Books and Periodicals. We have ascertained from the exhibit of the Publishing House that sales from the Christian Advocate department amounted to $41,000 the past year; that sales from Sunday-school periodicals and Quarterly Review combined, amounted to $113,000; that the net gain in assets from all departments was $50,131. But from the exhibit before us we are unable to pronounce this a net gain over all liabilities. Is it a net gain of $50,131 over last year? If it is a net gain, is it greater or less than the net gain of the year before?

But after all this is settled, the real question that confronts us is, what part has Holston Conference played in this net gain or loss, as the case may be? Did Holston Conference take more copies of the Advocate—buy more books and periodicals this year than last? We can not tell. We have no means of comparing one year with another. Our blanks for Annual Conference reports do not provide for books and periodicals as they do for moneys assessed and paid, or the gain or loss of membership. It is true we have a glimpse of the work done along this line through our colporteur, but it is only a glimpse; he can not possibly be in all the charges; much work is done by the pastors of which he knows nothing.

That we need some plan by which we may know more definitely what we are doing, goes without saying. We need to compare one year's work with another. This would put us in possession of information indispensably necessary to a complete report. What success has been reached this year in the distribution of the literature of the church is to us unknown, and as we believe, unknowable. If this were known, it would be a stimulus to press the work to still greater proportions from year to year. To know that we had done less one year than another would be a rebuke to bestir ourselves.

One other fact we noticed in our Publishing House report; it is this: $17,500 went out last year to Conference claimants. Out of this fact comes a double truth; it is this: to broadcast our literature among our people is to enable the Publishing House to do still more for the Conference claimants; and the more we can get our people to read, the more we, as pastors, can collect along all lines.

Therefore, in view of the foregoing, we offer the following recommendations:

1. That our General Conference have the Publishing House to issue a blank for Annual Conference reports that shall provide for books and periodicals.

2. That inasmuch as Dr. R. N. Price is crowded with work, while we regret to lose him, we, as a Conference, accept his resignation as editor of the Holston Methodist.

3. That T. F. Glenn be appointed editor of the Holston Methodist and J. W. Smith be appointed assistant editor.

4. That the preachers procure five hundred new subscribers to the Holston Methodist within the next six months.

W. S. NEIGHBORS, Ch'mn.

Resolved, That the agents of our Publishing House are respectfully requested to consider the feasibility of supplying, for the use of the church at large, a cheap monthly periodical in newspaper form, printed only on the inside with matter adapted to the education of our people in congregational and connectional affairs, so that the outside pages of said periodical may be filled with local matter and reissued to members of our congregations by pastors or other authorized persons.

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The assessments for Foreign Missions for 1892-'93 aggregated $9,500.00, and the total collections were $4,399.87. Special collections and subscriptions made at the session of our Conference in the city of Wytheville, Va., October, 1892, were $2,600.00, and on that $1,359.93 have been paid to date.

The assessments for our Domestic Missions were $7,000.00, and we have collected, all told, $3,410.72.

Assessment on Foreign and Domestic.....	$16,500 00
Collected on same.....	$7,810 59
Special collections	1,359 93

Total from all sources..... $9,170 52

The Board appropriated to the twenty-six charges within our Conference, asking for help, the sum of $3,950.00; about $3,000.00 less than the amount assessed for Domestic Missions. And yet the total collections for Domestic Missions only reach $3,410.93—$540.00 less than the appropriations.

This untoward result is largely due, perhaps, to the financial pressure everywhere prevailing the present year.

This condition of the country and of our treasury forbids any increase in the appropriations for the ensuing year.

The assessments for next year are as follows:

	Foreign Missions	Home Missions

The following missions have been discontinued: New Garden, Ridgedale and Sneedville.

A few new ones have been established: Fancy Gap, Bristol City, Cumberland Gap and Whitwell Missions.

The Board deplores the fact of its inability to make larger appropriations to its Mission fields. We do not question for a moment the needs of the Church in that direction; but we cannot do impossibilities.

The appropriations for 1893-'94 are as follows:

Hylton Mission.....	$ 75 00	Methodist Hill Mission	$225 00

The Board takes great pleasure in commending the valuable work being done by the Woman's Missionary Society of the Conference.

We conclude with the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That it is the sense of this Board that the pastors of the various charges in the bounds of the Conference should take their collections for Home Missions early in the year, and send them to the treasurer, Rev. L. L. H. Carlock, by the 1st of February.

2. Resolved, That all our preachers interest themselves in securing subscribers for our excellent Missionary Review, and in circulating missionary literature among our people.

To this end we urge our Presiding Elders to stress the cause of missions in their district conferences, by giving it a prominent place in the deliberations of that body.

REPORT ON MEMORIALS TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE.

Your committee beg leave to report, touching the memorial sent up from the Radford District Conference to this body, and also the paper presented by J. W. Browning, L. L. H. Carlock and H. C. Neal, and adopted by this Conference, that said memorials be forwarded to the General Conference through the leader of the delegation, Dr. E. E. Hoss.

Respectfully,

W. G. E. CUNNYNGHAM,
JAS. S. KENNEDY,
B. W. S. BISHOP.

MEMORIALS TO GENERAL CONFERENCE.

At the Radford District Conference of the M. E. Church, South, held at Dublin, July 15, 1893, it was resolved to send, through the Holston Annual Conference, the following memorial to the General Conference of the M. E. Church, South, to be held in May, 1894, namely:

The Radford District Conference hereby memorializes the General Conference of the M. E. Church, South, whereby it expresses its strong desire that the General Conference will order to be stricken out of the Discipline of the Church, as found on page 102, line 9, the word "may," and substitute therefor the word "shall"; so as to read, "Shall draw up a plan," so as to make it imperative on the preachers in charge to make a "plan," and not to leave it optional, as at present. And with the further purpose to give him entire control of the local preachers' work, and to enable him to appoint the most acceptable and suitable brethren to "feed the flock of Christ" in his charges.

This memorial further requests the General Conference to sanction and appoint that one session of each District Conference shall be devoted to a full consideration of all matters connected with the local ministry and the work of exhorters.

This Conference respectfully requests the Holston Annual Conference to endorse and take charge of this memorial, and to present it in due form to the General Conference in May, 1894.

Signed.

J. T. FRAZIER, President.

J. W. PERRY, Secretary.

Resolved, That we memorialize the next General Conference to order printed, for free distribution, tracts, pamphlets, &c. setting forth the doctrines and usages of the M. E. Church South, and that the same be paid for out of the Children's Day fund.

J. W. BROWNING,
L. L. H. CARLOCK,
H. C. NEAL.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

It is with great pleasure that we report what we believe is an increased interest in the work of church extension. Notwithstanding the unusual financial stringency, we are able to report, in cash collections and subscriptions to be paid by the first of March, 1894, a little in excess of last year.

The Board has received and considered thirteen applications for help, amounting to $2,000.00. And while it could not grant help to all these, nor to any of them to the amount for which they asked, it has done the very best it could under the circumstances.

Appropriations have been made as follows:

To Stony Point Church, Cumberland circuit, Bledsoe County, Tenn.....	$75 00
" Duffield Church, Scott County, Va.....	50 00
" Mt. Carroll Church, Carroll County, Va.....	50 00
" Bourne Memorial Church, Montgomery County, Va.....	100 00
" Mary's Chapel, Granger County, Tenn.....	75 00
" Whiteside Street, Chattanooga, Tenn.....	100 00
" Ewing's Chapel, Scott County, Va.....	50 00
" Church in Tuckaleechee Cove, Tenn.....	50 00
" Richland Church, Tazewell County, Va.....	100 00
Total amount	$700 00

Assessments for the ensuing Conference year, 1893-'94, are as follows:

Wytheville District	$450 00
Abingdon "	430 00
Jeffersonville "	415 00
Radford "	435 00
Morristown "	410 00
Big Stone Gap "	250 00
Knoxville "	470 00
Cleveland "	200 00
Chattanooga "	470 00
Sequatchee "	220 00
Total	$3,750 00

The Board wishes to call attention to what it thinks is an indiscretion on the part of some pastors. In order to induce a congregation to build a church the promise to obtain a definite sum from the Board to assist in building the church is made by the pastor. Then the people come with the plea that they must have help, because it was promised, when the Board had no knowledge of the promise whatever. This involves us in endless trouble. Let the people understand that we can only help them as they help us, and the end will be accomplished.

The Board has unanimously elected the Rev. W. D. Akers to edit the Church Extension column in the Holston Methodist. It has also paid for a sufficient number of the Church Extension Bulletin to send one copy to each preacher and official member of the church within the Holston Conference.

Trusting that we shall all do more for the extension of the Master's kingdom the coming year by building more and better houses of worship, we are, yours to serve,

T. C. SHULER, Sect'y.

ORPHANAGE.

SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

Whereas, in the history of Holston Methodism no institution, as such, has been established for the protection and training of orphans within her territory; and,

Whereas, the necessity for such an institution has been a conviction in the minds of many of Holston's eminent ministers, some of whom have long since passed away; and,

Whereas, it is the part of wisdom to conserve to the church all moral and religious forces indigenous to Methodist soil, by planting the gospel according to Methodism; and,

Whereas, by the action of the last General Conference the constitution of the Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission Society was so broadened as to give scope to work like this; therefore, be it

Resolved 1st, That the Holston Conference now in session in Knoxville, Tenn., do take this movement under prayerful consideration, and are hereby requested to appoint a committee which shall confer with the Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission Society, Holston Conference, to convene at Sweetwater, Tenn., October 19-22, 1893.

Resolved 2nd, That this Holston Conference consider itself an integral factor in the accomplishment of this work—by a ready sympathy and hearty co-operation therein—whenever such plans are adopted as, in the judgment of the committee, shall meet the requirements.

And we recommend the appointment of F. Richardson, R. W. Kite and W. W. Pyott as a committee from the Conference to meet the Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission Society to be held at Sweetwater, Tenn., October 19-22, 1893.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We are glad to find, from the information furnished us, that our church schools were well patronized for the scholastic year of 1892-3. There were about 1,000 matriculations, all told. Of this number, more than 700 were females, leaving less than 300 in our male colleges and mixed schools. These colleges and academies were well manned and wisely managed.

The amount collected for educational fund is $551.01, on an assessment of $2,500, paid by district as follows:

Radford	$45 61	Jeffersonville	$61 34
Wytheville	63 87	Abingdon	85 89
Big Stone Gap	24 30	Morristown	52 50
Knoxville.....	96 55	Cleveland.....	23 80
Chattanooga.....	84 26	Sequatchee	12 89

The tuition remitted by our male colleges to young men preparing for the ministry, and to the sons of traveling preachers, is as follows:

Emory and Henry	$1,400 00
People's College	76 50
Princeton Academy.....	90 25

Total	$1,566 75

The amount raised is about 35 per cent. of the remitted tuition, and has been pro rated as follows: Emory and Henry, $492.50; People's College, $26.70; Princeton Academy, $31.81.

It will be remembered that this is the first year in which the educational fund has been placed along with the general collections in the hands of the preachers. A new collection and a hard year coming together may account for the falling off of this fund. We think the arrangement good, and feel assured that collections will steadily increase.

We mention as a piece of information, that the remitted tuition to the daughters of preachers in our female schools is about $1,500. For this there is no provision made, and none asked for at present; but it is mentioned as a part of our educational work worthy of note.

We record, with devout gratitude, the fact that there were revivals of religion in all these schools, especially among the boarders in our female colleges, so sweeping that of the 300 boarding in Martha Washington, Sullins and Centenary, not more than a half dozen perhaps went home unconverted.

Thank God for such Christian schools.

The plan proposed for the financial relief of Emory and Henry at your last session has been adopted by the board of trustees, and is to be carried out as rapidly as is practicable. The loss to this college of its honored president, Dr. Atkins, left a vacancy, which has been well and wisely filled by the election of Dr. R. G. Waterhouse, so that to-day, in faculty and general outfit, Emory and Henry is as strong to do first-class college work as she ever was.

All our schools paid their current expenses last year, and it is very gratifying to be able to report that all our schools are opening well for this year, 1893-'94, the matriculations to date being well up to former years, notwithstanding the severe financial pressure.

Hiwassee College is now moving off more hopefully than for some years past; Mr. S. G. Gilbreath, a graduate of the institution, and a teacher of successful experience, president; Dr. F. M. Grace, professor. The trustees of this school have decided to open its doors to females at the beginning of the Spring term.

Martha Washington, Sullins and Centenary have substantially the same faculties as last year, and are doing excellent work.

Princeton Academy is still flourishing under the principalship of Eugene Blake.

Pryor Institute is now moving off hopefully under its new officers—Rev. T. Bryan, president, and J. C. Hicks, professor.

A report from Rev. J. W. Carnes, president of People's College, speaks hopefully of that school.

We heartily commend all these our Conference schools as most worthy the patronage of all who may have sons and daughters to educate.

We suggest that the assessment for educational fund be $2,000.00 for the coming year, and $5.00 for Holston Annual, apportioned to the districts thus:

Radford	$233 00	Morristown	$218 00
Wytheville.....	236 00	Knoxville	225 00
Jeffersonville	320 00	Cleveland.....	155 00
Abingdon	227 00	Chattanooga.....	200 00
Big Stone Gap.....	175 00	Sequatchee	137 00

Our attention has been called to the fact that the trustees of the Rhea Springs Academy, Sequatchee district, are ready to deed their school property, worth $1,500.00 or $2,000.00, to our Church to be used as a training school under our direction. Your Board suggests the appointment by the Conference of a committee, composed of R. G. Waterhouse, J. W. Paulett, D. Sullins and the Presiding Elder of the district, to look after this matter and see that the transfer is "in due and ancient form."

The following visitors to our several colleges are named:

Hiwassee.—J. M. Maiden, J. A. Stubblefield, J. W. Thomasson, A. Kincaid, O. Ledgerwood, J. A. Burrow, L. L. H. Carlock, W. D. Browder, W. A. Brown.

Martha Washington.—R. G. Waterhouse, J. S. W. Neel, J. H. Kennedy, W. C. Carden, W. W. Pyott, C. C. Fisher, W. M. Dyer, H. B. Hull, G. A. Maiden, S. T. M. McPherson, E. F. Kahle, G. W. Summers, J. L. Jarman.

Sullins.—K. C. Atkins, D. V. Price, J. S. W. Neel, E. C. Reeves, J. H. Kennedy, J. W. Gaut, J. A. Burrow.

Centenary.—J. H. Brunner, V. C. Allen, F. Richardson, J. W. Paulett, T. R. Handy, R. G. Waterhouse, W. M. Nixon, W. G. Lenoir.

Pryor Institute.—R. A. Owen, C. T. Carroll, A. D. Stewart, W. A. Thomas, J. W. Robertson, W. S. Neighbors, T. C. Shuler, J. W. Browning, John Woolsey.

People's College.—S. Phillips, J. I. Cash, S. D. East, N. Q. Allen, F. Alexander.

We recommend the appointment of Dr. R. N. Price and J. P. Dickey to professorships in the American Temperance University at Harriman, by request. D. SULLINS, Prest.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

We are encouraged with the progress of our beloved Church along all lines of interest and enterprise during the past year, as indicated in reports of Presiding Elders and Pastors.

Revivals—many of them of glorious magnitude—have characterized the preaching of the Word, and the work done on every district, yea, on almost every charge. A most encouraging fruit of most of these refreshings is the revival of family worship. There are more family altars amongst us than ever before. Another encouraging feature is, the waking up of the Church to the importance of cultivating our young people. The work of the Church in this direction is meeting with a most happy response everywhere. In Epworth Leagues, Missionary and other Societies, our young people are being stimulated to the study of God's word, and to such varied and profitable practical religion as must result in their own development in the knowledge and love of God and in great blessing to the Church. We thank God for this.

We congratulate the Church on the maintenance of a fine comparative financial status. We have trembled in the presence and influence of great financial depression for many material interests of our Zion. While there is a falling off in some directions, it is not so great as we had feared.

We are improving in the way of homes for our preachers and houses of worship for our people. This is essential to the permanent occupancy of the whole country.

The growing patronage of our publishing interests indicates that our people are becoming more and more a reading people.

With preachers and people growing in the grace of intelligent, liberal and robust piety, the outlook for our Church is most hopeful.

CHURCH PROPERTY.

Your Committee on Church Property submit the following report:

There are reported 530 churches, valued at $846,595.00, and 93 parsonages, valued at $139,805.00; other church property valued at $452,438.00. Expended for improvements on the above, $69,725.57. It appears that during the year $69,625.57 were expended on churches and parsonages. The reports show that seven churches have been built, and an increase over last year of $52,820.00 in value of churches; an increase of two parsonages, and an increase in value of $15,405.00.

Respectfully submitted,

BIBLE CAUSE.

We are deeply impressed with the great value of the Holy Scriptures, and with the necessity for earnest and organized efforts to distribute them.

Evidences of the peculiar power of the printed word in various languages have been multiplied in many lands, confirming the testimony which has been accumulating as decades and centuries have glided away, that “the Word of the Lord which endureth forever” is for each successive generation an unfailing source of light, strength and comfort. Therefore,

Resolved 1st, That we are in hearty sympathy with the American Bible Society in its special effort to put a copy of the Bible into the hands of every child that can read it, and that we will most earnestly co-operate with them in this work.

Resolved 2nd, That while we do not in the least depreciate our Sunday-school literature, we deeply deplore the fact that in many of our schools it is substituted for the Bible, and we most earnestly insist on the use of the Bible as a text-book in class study of the lesson during the Sunday-school hour.

Resolved 3rd, That, whereas there is a falling off in the bequests to the American Bible Society, and whereas this has been the main source of its income hitherto, we do take a collection for this cause in all our churches, or other conferences and church proceedings, on the first Sunday in April, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable.

Respectfully submitted.

REPORT OF SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD.

Your Committee on Sunday-schools report as follows:

Number of schools, 566; a decrease of 44. Number of officers and teachers, 4,204; a decrease of 64. Number of scholars, 37,264; a decrease of 46. Amount spent in helping needy schools, $223.50; which is $256.85 less than last year. Money collected on Children’s Day, $201.12, which is $5.26 more than last year. Money now in treasury, $707.00.

At a meeting of the officers of the Board held in Knoxville, Tenn., in January, 1893, it was decided, inasmuch as the regular reports failed to give all the information desired by the Board, to prepare and furnish to each pastor a special blank, to be filled out and presented to the Board at this Conference session. The Secretary of the Board, Rev. J. A. Burrow, Jr., discharged this duty. The Board regrets to report a failure to secure reports from 95 charges. Had these blanks been filled out as requested, the Board could have been able to furnish much valuable information concerning our Sunday-school work.

Your committee recommends the organization of all the Sunday-schools in each presiding elder’s district into a Sunday-school conference, to meet annually, as provided for in the Discipline, ¶240, looking to the organization of a Conference Sunday-school convention, also provided for in the Discipline, ¶241.

A number of Epworth Leagues have been organized since our last session, but owing to a failure on the part of many of the pastors to give in reports on this subject, your committee cannot furnish figures.

The Board has granted $15.00 toward the publication of Conference minutes, which sum has been incorporated in the list of expenditures.

It is decided to make grants of literature, as heretofore, for three months at a time.

W. A. THOMAS, Chm'n.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your committee, to whom was referred the examination of the records of the District Conferences, submit the following report:

The records of the Wytheville and Morristown District Conferences are models in points of neatness and arrangement. The secretaries deserve commendation for the special pains taken in putting to record what will some day be valuable church history.

The records of the Big Stone Gap District Conference did not come into the hands of the committee. The secretary is hardly excusable for this gross neglect of an important duty.

The record of the Radford District Conference has been well and neatly kept, with only two errors worthy of note. It does not show that the minutes of the second session were ever approved by the Conference, and the President of the Conference failed to sign the record.

The committee noted the following errors in the records of the Jeffersonville District Conference:

It does not show that the minutes of the second session of the Conference were ever read and approved, the secretary failed to put to record the name of the person who conducted the devotional exercise of the sixth session, and he refers to a report in the Appendix which has not been recorded.

The record of the Abingdon District Conference has been kept in a business-like style, but the secretary and president failed to sign the same.

The records of the Knoxville, Cleveland and Chattanooga District Conferences have been well kept.

The record of the Sequatchee District Conference has been very imperfectly kept. It shows great haste and carelessness on the part of the secretary. The book has been greatly marred by interlineations. Respectfully submitted,

H. C. CLEMENS, Ch'mn.

MEMOIRS.

EPHRAIM EMERSON WILEY.

Dr. Ephraim Emerson Wiley was born near the city of Boston, in the year 1814. In blood and lineage, he was an unmixed Puritan. His father, the Rev. Ephraim Wiley, was long an honored member of the New England Conference, being frequently stationed in Boston as the colleague of Edward T. Taylor, Elijah Hedding, and other such men. His mother was a devout and gentle Christian woman; he cherished her memory most tenderly to the end of his pilgrimage. After he had passed his three-score and ten, he once said to us: "I feel her touch on my character more and more with each succeeding year of my life." When he was about seventeen, he was clearly converted under a sermon preached by Father Taylor at an old-fashioned Methodist camp meeting. Shortly thereafter he entered Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn. His father, having a large family, was unable to give him the necessary pecuniary assistance; and the childless, but warm-hearted, Elijah Hedding—whom he had frequently served as an errand boy, going to the post office, bringing the smoking tobacco, lighting the pipe, etc.—loaned him a sufficient sum, and waited for its return till he could complete his course and pay it back.

At Middletown the young student was brought under the inspiring influence of Wilbur Fisk, whom he always regarded as the noblest man that he ever knew, and whose views on social, moral, and religious questions colored his own to the end of his life. Other of his teachers also helped him greatly. Time and again he has told us of the benefit that he derived from the instruction of Prof. Daniel D. Whedon; and he did not allow even the estrangements of later years to alter in the least his admiration for Prof. Whedon's erudition, ability, and character. At that time many young men of extraordinary gifts were thronging to Middletown. The class of 1837, of which Dr. Wiley was a member, embraced such names as Charles Collins, Erastus Wentworth, Joseph Cummings, and Daniel Curry.

After graduation Dr. Wiley taught for one or two years in an Academy at Augusta, Me. In 1839, through the interposition of Wilbur Fisk, he came to Emory and Henry College, Virginia, to be the colleague of Charles Collins; and with the exception of one brief interval, during which he served as President of Martha Washington College, he remained there until his death, a period of more than half a century. Not many months after his arrival in Virginia, he was licensed to preach by that Apollos of Holston Methodism, the Rev. Elbert F. Sevier, and in the fall of 1840 was received on trial into the Holston Conference. From the first he took a high stand among his brethren. In 1851 he was elected as a delegate to the General Conference, and was shown the same honor for nine successive times thereafter, frequently heading his delegation. It is not too much to say that for at least thirty years he has been undisputedly the foremost man in his Conference. On more occasions than one he received a large vote for the episcopacy, a position that he would have filled with great dignity and honor.

As a teacher he was a pronounced success. For fifteen years he gave instruction in the classic languages. This was before the modern methods were introduced. In those days the classics were still looked upon as literature, and the matter of correct and elegant translation was insisted on above everything else. His old students still delight to tell how smoothly he could render, and with grace he could scan, a difficult passage in Virgil or Homer.

Dr. Wiley was very fond of preaching, and preached a great deal. For more than forty years he occupied the College pulpit on an average once or twice a month, besides his special work in revival seasons. His services were also in great demand in different parts of the church. He had in him many elements of power. No man ever surpassed him in clearness of statement. In his best estate he possessed also great vigor of thought and utterance. Once in a while, when he gave a free rein to his imagination, his style became marked by a rare beauty; and not infrequently he was a master of pathos.

Almost entirely free from ambition, he seemed to care but little for his own promotion. If he had pushed himself, he might have risen to the highest places in the Church. Always taking his time, never in a hurry, he seemed to those who did not know him to lack energy; but, while he did not crowd any one day with labors, he also did not let any one pass without doing something. He kept an even gait, resting not, hasting not. In the long run, he accomplished far more than many busier men.

As a Christian, he was sincere, earnest, and unpretentious. In later years his character ripened beautifully. He gradually and cheerfully let go worldly affairs, and took a stronger grasp on eternal things.

How the end came we shall let his lifelong friend, Professor James A. Davis, tell:

"The long and useful life of our venerable Dr. E. E. Wiley closed at 6 o'clock this morning, March 13. He had been growing feeble gradually for some months, but not until a few weeks ago did he cease from pulpit labor. Without disease, and almost without pain, his exit was a translation. While the sun of a bright morning was rising above the hills, his spirit mounted to its place in the skies, and he ceased, almost at once, to labor and to live."

JOHN M. McTEER.

John Montgomery McTeer was born in Blount, now Loudon, county, Tenn., the 3rd day of May, 1824, and died at his home in Wytheville, Va., November 28th, 1892.

His parents were Presbyterians and he was brought up in that faith.

His conversion was at Sinking Creek, near Morganton, Tenn., August 3d, 1842. In his "Sketches of the Past," written some years ago and published in the Holston Methodist, he speaks thus of his conversion: "O, the joy of that happy hour! The brightest page in memory's book."

At a Quarterly Conference held at Morganton, Tenn., by the Rev. Rufus M. Stevens, February 23d, 1847, he was licensed to preach the gospel, and immediately employed to fill a vacancy on the Straight Fork Mission. In the fall of 1847, at the session of the Holston Conference, held by Bishop Andrew, he was admitted on trial as a traveling preacher in the class with John H. Brunner, Samuel D. Gaines, James T. Smith and George W. Renfro, and appointed junior preacher on the Jonesboro Circuit, Daniel B. Carter being in charge.

In the fall of 1848 he was appointed to Powell's Valley Circuit. In 1849, to the Jasper Circuit. At this Conference, which met in Cleveland, Tenn., he was ordained deacon by Bishop Andrew. In 1850-'51 he was on the Kingston Circuit. In 1851, at Athens, Tenn., he was ordained elder by Bishop Andrew, and sent to the Elizabethton Circuit. In 1852 he was sent to the Jonesboro Circuit. In 1853 he was appointed to the Abingdon Circuit, and re-appointed to the same charge in 1854. In 1855, to the Wytheville Circuit. In 1856, to Wytheville Station. In 1857, to the Marion Circuit.

At the Conference held in Chattanooga, in 1858, Bishop Andrew appointed him Presiding Elder of the Wytheville District. For twenty-three years he was a faithful, laborious, and efficient Presiding Elder, serving the Wytheville, Abingdon, Wytheville, Knoxville, Athens, Chattanooga and Wytheville Districts, in the order here named.

Perhaps no man in the Holston Conference ever held this office so many consecutive years as he. The judgment of the wise Bishop Andrew in selecting him for this position, was afterwards endorsed by Bishops Early, Pierce, Kavanaugh, Wightman, Doggett, McTyeire and Keener. His wonderful efficiency marked him as the man for the position.

As a preacher, Brother McTeer excelled—not, perhaps, according to the strictest rules of exegesis or homiletics—but in the presentation of such themes as the Fall of Man, the Atonement, Justification, Regeneration, Sanctification, the Resurrection, the Church, he was clear, forcible and impressive. These were stock themes with Bro. McTeer. His sermon on Hell was terrible; that on Heaven, grand and glorious.

He was rarely gifted in song. Considering its strength and compass, his voice was remarkably clear and musical. Sometimes, when he willed it so, as soft and full of melody as the Æolian harp, and again reaching a volume as full and sonorous as the deepest-toned organ, having a compass that embraced the entire camp-ground without loss of melody. How Bishop Early was charmed with his singing at the Wabash camp-meeting in 1859. Ever after this he required "his friend McTeer" to be present and conduct the singing in those matchless prayer-meetings with which the good Bishop opened the morning sessions of the Conference.

He was married three times. In 1850, to Miss Eliza C. Kelly, of Jonesboro, Tenn. In 1857, to Mrs. Frances Piper, of Wythe county, Va., and in 1884, to Miss Fannie Hatcher, of Rock-bridge county, Va. The fruit of the first marriage was two sons—the Rev. Canaro D. McTeer, of Cleveland, Tenn., and the late Judge James Piper McTeer, of Wytheville, Va.

Five times Bro. McTeer was elected a delegate to the General Conference, and was a useful member of these legislative synods of the church.

But John M. McTeer is dead. He whose voice was so often heard in the councils of the church and in her pulpits, is gone from us forever. He whose preaching under God brought conviction to hundreds of sinners, who had, and now has, perhaps, more seals to his ministry in the church militant than any man who has preached in the Wytheville District in half a century, has fought his last battle and gone to join his beloved Carter, Gaines, Renfro, Miles, Catlett and Haskew with the "great majority."

How did he die? Bro. Summers, late a pastor at Wytheville, tells how he visited him often for three years; how he found him with the Bible or the church paper in his hands; how he constantly increased in cheerfulness of spirit and tenderness of heart; how he enjoyed conversation on personal religion; how he rejoiced with his dear brethren Dyer—since gone to meet him—and Rich, in the service of the holy communion; how he manifested wonderful patience amid deep suffering; how he exultingly said, "O yes, I am ready, and have been ready for a long time."

Let us thank God for giving him being, for his long life and peaceful end.

B. W. S. BISHOP,
For Committee.

TOBIAS F. SMYTH.

Tobias F. Smyth was born in the state of Illinois, November 30, 1837, and died January 31, 1893, at Sweetwater, Tenn., where he had lived since the fall of 1889. His parents were Wm. A. and Mary Ann Smyth. He was the grandson of Tobias Smyth, who was one of the founders of Emory and Henry College.

His father having died when he was quite young, he was sent, at the age of 16, to live with his grandfather, and to be educated at Emory and Henry College. During his stay here he was converted at old Lebanon camp-ground, and joined the church. Was licensed to preach when about 18 years of age in Illinois, by a Rev. Mr. Wheat, having returned to that State.

In 1856 or 1857 he returned to Emory and Henry to complete the course, and was in the senior year when the civil war broke out in 1861. He volunteered in the Thirty-seventh Virginia Regiment, and while in the army did service as a chaplain. After the close of the war, Emory and Henry College conferred a full diploma on him on account of merit.

He was received on trial in the Holston Conference, at Athens, Tenn., October, 1862. The following appointments in the Conference were filled by him: He was sent to Hillsville Circuit in 1865; in 1866, to Lenoirs; in 1867, to Union City; in 1868, to Pearisburg Station; in 1869, to Rutledge Circuit; in 1870, back to Pearisburg, where he remained four years; in 1874, to Emory Circuit; in 1875 he was appointed to the Jeffersonville

District, and traveled it two years; in 1877 he was sent to the Sequatchee District, where he broke down in health in a short time.

In the fall of 1878 he was granted a supernumerary relation, and remained in that relation till 1881. From 1881 to 1883 he was effective, and was appointed to Bristol City Mission, where he organized Mary Street Church. He was placed on the supernumerary list again in 1883, and continued in this relation till 1888, when he was returned to the effective list and sent to Mt. Airy Circuit. At the close of this year he was sent to Sweetwater Circuit, where he did a most excellent year's work. But being feeble in health, when the year's work was done, he took a superannuated relation, and remained in this relation until he was transferred by the Bishop of Souls from the church below to the church triumphant.

He was married to Miss Orrie T. Brown, daughter of John A. Brown, of Wythe county, Va., September 22, 1868, with whom he lived in happy wedlock till the day of his death.

In several particulars, Brother Smyth was more than an ordinary man. He was highly endowed by nature, had superior attainments in scholarship, and had achieved much by divine grace. As a preacher, in point of intellectual strength, finished scholarship and real oratory, he excelled many who have commanded more attention and stronger appointments at the hands of the appointing powers. His studied sermons were good to the use of edifying, and were rarely ever tame or commonplace. But Brother Smyth was a modest, unassuming man, and not possessed of the stuff to push himself forward.

Our brother had gained this advantage—the world's allurements had no charms for him. His passions and tempers he held in abeyance. He murmured not, nor complained, at what seemed to be the afflictive dispensations of God's providence. His prayer was that God's will might be done in him and toward him. The law of kindness ruled his lips. He "ordered his conversation aright." Meekness and humility were noticeable traits of his character. Nothing of sourness or moroseness was allowed to creep into his experience, as the infirmities of life increased and multiplied. He was, in deed and in truth, "a living epistle, seen and read of all men." To know him was to love him. And those who knew him best, loved him most. In the community where Brother Smyth lived for nearly four years, and where he died, he had the entire confidence of every one, old and young, saint and sinner; and the people loved him as devotedly as ever any man was loved. They delighted to show him kindnesses while he remained among them, and many were the tokens of their regard to him and his excellent wife while they lived in their midst.

Of such an one it need not be asked, did he die well? Brother Smyth leaves us "living testimony." A short time before his last sickness, at a revival meeting being conducted in his town, he said, "I sometimes feel that I am not much longer for this world, but when the Master calls me I am ready to go." So he was. He had been getting ready for the journey too long to be alarmed when the announcement was made that he was wanted in the other department of the kingdom.

We have no misgivings as to his whereabouts. With him the suffering time is over. He rests from his labors.

L. L. H. CARLOCK.

J. L. M. FRENCH.

John Lee McCarty French was born November 19, 1838, in Rhea county, Tenn., on a farm which is now occupied by the thriving city of Dayton, and died February 3, 1893, in Bristol, Va. He was the son of Joseph H. and Nancy Benson French.

We suppose that his father died early, though this is nothing more than a supposition. However this may be, we find young John, at the age of fifteen, living in Chattanooga, Tenn., with his uncle John, after whom he was named. For this uncle and his affectionate and pious wife he always cherished the fondest affection.

It was but a short time till the town of Chattanooga was stirred from center to circumference by the "Great Revival," as the old citizens still call it, under the ministry of Rev. David Sullins. In that revival John L. M. French, jr., was converted, and ever afterward walked worthy of his vocation in Christ. Then came the conviction that God had a special work for him to do, and that work nothing less than preaching the gospel of the Son of God. In a short time we find him in the hospitable home of Alex. Findlay, Esq., of Abingdon, Va., where he spent about two years in preparing for his life-work. His appreciation of the kindness of Mr. Findlay and his family was betokened by his frequent and tender mention of their names during "the last week." And it is impossible to calculate how much his success in life was due to the quiet leisure afforded him by Mr. Findlay's generosity and the easy access which he accorded him to one of the best private libraries in Virginia, and certainly the best Methodist library in our knowledge.

Brother French received license to preach from the class at Abingdon, and preached his first sermon at Laurel Springs, a few miles away. He was then twenty-one or twenty-two years of age. He was admitted on trial into Holston Conference at Greeneville, Tenn., October 9-16, 1861, Bishop Andrew presiding. In the Conference of 1864, which met at Bristol, he was admitted into full connection, along with Henry C. Neal and Tobias F. Smyth. He and they were also ordained traveling deacons at that time, Bishop Early laying his hands upon them. At Cleveland, under the presidency of Bishop Wightman, in 1867, he was ordained elder, at the same time with Hardy M. Bennett and Tobias F. Smyth.

His first appointment was to Fort Hembree circuit, in North Carolina, which he served the first year of the civil war. His last appointment was to Mary Street station, in Bristol. Bro. French moved often, and thus extended widely his personal influence. The following is a list of the charges which he served, exclusive of those above named:

Harrison circuit, Jacksboro circuit, Wytheville circuit, Cleveland station, Charleston and Calhoun station and Chattanooga mission, Athens station in 1869, and again in 1891, Jonesboro and Greeneville station in 1870, and Jonesboro station in 1871-'72, and again in 1888, Morristown and Mossy Creek station in 1873, Mossy Creek station two years. Broad Street station (Knoxville), one year, three years on Rheatown circuit, Wytheville station one year and Marion station three years. He was one year on Newbern circuit and two years on Leadmines circuit, and one year each on Emory circuit, Radford station and Pulaski station. Thus he served twenty charges in nearly thirty-two years. He always went to his appointments, and was everywhere measurably successful. At some points he had remarkable success in revival work, and I doubt not that thousands will rise up and call him blessed in the happy world above.

While he was stationed at Jonesboro, in 1872-'73, he was married, I think, February 27, 1872. The fortunate bride was Mollie Stewart, the beautiful daughter of the late lamented and holy man, the Rev. George Stewart, of the Holston Conference. They were very happy in each other, and their union was blessed with three children, one dying in childhood and two surviving him in tears. Bessie, a frail but lovely girl, possessing the same sweet spirit that animated her parents, did not long survive the stroke that left her fatherless. Stewart, the son, has entered the itinerant field, and we pray that upon his shoulders may fall the mantle of his holy and eminently useful sire.

As a preacher, Bro. French showed great versatility. He was capable of original and forcible expression. His sermons smelled of oil. Sometimes he made a sudden but pleasing dash of wit, or bubbled over with humor. But here was not his forte. He was remarkably pathetic. The writer remembers with pleasure the deep and abiding impressions made on his boy-heart by his tender and pathetic appeals.

Never was there a more honest, candid, righteous soul than he. Naturally conservative, he always avoided foolish quarrels; but where principle was involved, and duty to God and the cause of truth called him, he was fearless of man or devil, and as transparent as the beams of the morning.

He was very affectionate, seeming to possess not only the sterner virtues of men, but also all that is beautiful in the mind and heart of woman.

"Brother," said he shortly before his death, "I am worse."

"Yes: I fear you are."

"I am very much worse."

"Yes; I fear that you will never be better. But, Brother French, it only means that you are not very far from Heaven, where you will never suffer any more, as long as God sits on His throne."

"Is not that glorious? And I shall never see any one else suffer forever! Glorious! Glory to God! Glorious!"

And it is glorious.

D. V. PRICE,
For the Com.

SARAH MITCHELL.

Sarah Mitchell was born in Tazewell county, Va., December —, 1814, and died April 14, 1893, at the good old age of seventy-seven years. She was married to Rev. Charles Mitchell, of the Holston Conference, M. E. Church, South, December 2, 1834, with whom she lived happily until death took him from her, June 16, 1858, while in charge of the Hillsville Circuit, Carroll county, Va. To them were born eight children, three sons and five daughters. Two of her children preceded her to the spirit world, one son and one daughter. The son fell as a soldier in the late war. She has now met them over the last river. The other children are still living; some of them in the West. The youngest son and one grandson are ministers of the gospel and members of our Conference.

Sister Mitchell professed faith in Christ in her twentieth year, and for fifty-seven years literally walked with God. She lived in widowhood thirty-five years. Being left with a large family of children, and never physically strong, she struggled as best she could to raise her children in credit and esteem. Her strong faith in God seemed to add cheerfulness to her daily life, and led her down life's declining pathway to a golden old age. She died as she had lived, in peace with God and all the world.

"Asleep in Jesus: blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep—
A calm and undisturbed repose,
Unbroken by the last of foes."

"Lo! the pain of life is past,
All her warfare now is o'er;
Death and hell behind are cast,
Grief and suff'ring are no more."

JAMES MAHONEY.

MARY ANDREWS GOODYKOONTZ.

Mary Andrews Goodykoontz (nee Kirkpatrick) was born May 17, 1825; joined the M. E. Church, at Blowing Springs campground, in 1839; married to Rev. A. M. Goodykoontz, of the Holston Conference, October 8, 1846, who died many years ago, leaving Sister Goodykoontz with two little children, a girl and a boy, whom she, amid the reverses and difficulties common to widowhood, brought up in respectability, giving them reasonably good educations. The daughter is a devoted Christian, but the son, though a father, is still in the world. The mother so much desired to see him brought into the fold before she went home. I feel that her prayer will be answered in his conversion. Though suffering great bodily pain, she died in great peace (expressing to the last a sweet and loving hope) August 12, 1893. We buried her from her late home, Sabbath afternoon, August 13, 1893. Her many friends expressed their appreciation and sympathy by being present and assisting in the funeral and burial. We laid her tired and worn body to rest in the old Kirkpatrick graveyard, in sight of and just above the Clinch River, as the golden sun was setting, to await the glorious resurrection of the righteous, among whom "grandma" will be sure to be.

B. T. SHARP.

CORDELIA L. RUNYAN.

Cordelia L. Runyan, wife of Rev. J. C. Runyan, of the Holston Conference, and daughter of James H. and Sophronia Roberts, was born March 1, 1861, married May 25, 1876, and died April 18, 1893. She made a profession of faith in Christ, and joined the M. E. Church, South, when very young, and lived a most exemplary Christian till death. She leaves five children this side of the river of death, and has joined two sweet little ones, who had gone on before, in the Christian's home in glory. She was a dutiful and loving child, a devoted wife and mother, and "an example of the believers" everywhere and at all times. She was modest and unassuming, but strong in faith and devotion. When she married her faithful husband, she entered fully into the spirit of his work as a minister of the gospel, and thoroughly consecrated herself to the service of the Master as a preacher's wife. She found it a position of toil and sometimes hardship, but she endured as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. Eternity alone will reveal the bright record of the faithful itinerant's wife, who endures so much to enable her husband to do the work which God has given him to do. It will be said unto her, with an emphasis that will thrill the great judgment throng, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

HOLSTON ANNUAL, 1893.

EDITORIAL INTRODUCTION.

To the Ministers and Members of the Church:

The twentieth number of the Holston Annual makes its bow to the people whom it comes to serve. It is conscious of some imperfections, but craves the charity of those who look into its friendly face. The publisher has gone to and fro by day and by night in order that the issue might not be delayed. He hereby acknowledges the invaluable assistance of Rev. J. R. Payne, and is certainly appreciative of the patience and courtesy of the printers.

The figures of the Joint Board of Finance are used in the tabular exhibit. We would have preferred the figures of the treasurers of other Boards, but did not get them in due form. Through errors, not intentional, of course, reports and moneys do not always balance.

The directory is, perhaps, not absolutely reliable in every case. We made heroic efforts to hear from all the preachers, but failed in some instances. In these few cases we used our best judgment in locating the brethren, believing a guess to be better than a blank.

The preachers will be charged with the copies sent them. These copies are to be sold at fifteen cents each, and the money turned over to the Joint Board at next Conference for the publication of another Annual. If some of the copies can not be sold, then return them to the publisher at Knoxville, and receive credit for same. If any preacher wishes to raise by subscription the amount necessary to pay for Annals sent him, of course there will be no objection. The foregoing plan was voted by the Conference. If it is not adhered to there will be no publishing fund, as no assessment for that purpose is made this year.

JACK-KNIFE AND BRAMBLES.

BY BISHOP HAYGOOD.

The Book has 308 12mo. pages. Is well Printed and Bound.
THE PRICE IS ONE DOLLAR.

The book is a great book for the purpose intended. Every Methodist (or any other kind) preacher should read it immediately. The Epworth League should adopt it. It is destined to do much good. Let all our preachers commend it to their congregations.—Rev. J. C. Kilgo, of Wofford College, in Southern Christian Advocate.

We commend it cordially to preachers, students and teachers who want a strong common-sense presentation of the truth and beauty of the Word of God.—Methodist Protestant, Baltimore.

It is the clearest and most satisfactory refutation of infidelity in its various forms and phrases; the most lucid defense of the divine order of revelation and method of dealing with men that we have seen.—Central Methodist.

The Gospel Among the Slaves.

BY W. P. HARRISON, D.D., AND MISS ANNIE M. BARNES.

12mo. pp. 394. PRICE $1.25. ILLUSTRATED.

No more thrilling chapters of missionary toil and triumph are to be found than in the history of "plantation missions" in the old South.—Bishop Galloway.

"The Gospel Among the Slaves" gives an intensely interesting account of the labors of both white and colored missionaries among the African slaves of the Southern States. . . . Dr. Harrison and Miss Barnes deserve the thanks of Methodism for this valuable contribution to Methodist literature.—Northwestern Christian Advocate.

While this book is a valuable study it abounds in passages of beauty, plantation incidents, and scenes of pathos. . . . Get this book that you may be posted in the facts of Southern Methodist history touching our missionary efforts among the slaves.—Alabama Christian Advocate.

STANDARD HOUSEHOLD REMEDIES.

DR. D. JAYNE'S FAMILY MEDICINES

Are prepared with great care, especially for family use, and are so admirably calculated to preserve health and remove disease that no family should be without them. They consist of Jayne's Expectorant. for Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Consumption and all Lung and Throat Affections. It may be depended on to promote cures by facilitating expectoration and allaying inflammation.

Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge. There is no better Tonic for Adults or Children, and it is especially useful in all cases of Disordered Digestion. For General Debility, Dyspepsia and Sour Stomach, it is a certain curative, and for Worms and Intermittent Fevers of Children it is an old-time remedy.

Jayne's Carminative Balsam, for Bowel and Summer Complaints, Colics, Cramps, Cholera, etc. It is a certain cure for Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, and inflammation of the Bowels.

Jayne's Specific for Tape-Worm is a sure destroyer of this troublesome parasite, and usually drives it from the body in two or three hours.

Jayne's Alterative is the surest medicine for Purifying the Blood, and of established efficacy for curing Scrofula, Goitre, Dropsy, Epilepsy, Salt Rheum, and all diseases of the Skin and Bones.

Jayne's Liniment, or Counter Irritant, for Sprains, Bruises, Soreness in the Bones or Muscles, helpful in Rheumatism or Neuralgia, and useful in all cases where an external application is appropriate.

Jayne's Sanative Pills, small size, sugar-coated, a mild Aperient or active Purgative, according to dose, and an effective remedy for all Bilious Affections, Liver Complaints, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, and Sick Headache.

Jayne's Hair Tonic, for the Preservation, Beautifying, Growth, and Restoration of the Hair. It is a pleasant dressing for the Hair, and a useful toilet article.

In settlements and localities where the attendance of a physician cannot be readily obtained, families will find these remedies of great service. The Directions which accompany them are in plain, unprofessional language, easily understood by all, and in addition Jayne's Medical Almanac and Guide to Health, to be had gratis of all Agents, contains, besides a reliable Calendar, a Catalogue of Diseases, THE SYMPTOMS BY WHICH THEY MAY BE KNOWN, together with advice as to the proper remedies to be used.

All of Dr. D. Jayne & Son's Family Medicines are sold by Druggists Everywhere.
